BMV DRAMA FAQs

My child has no experience. Can he/she still attend the workshops and audition?

Experience is not required. The goal of BMV DRAMA is to teach performing arts and to develop the skills needed to participate in a theatrical production. Among the attributes we will be looking for during the workshop and audition are: willingness to learn, cooperative spirit, positive attitude, and respect for self and others.

Does my child need a headshot for the audition?

No, photos are not necessary.

Should my child prepare his/her own song, dance or monologue for the audition?

No. Students will be taught several songs from Seussical Jr during the workshop, and they will perform one of those at the audition.

Can parents watch the workshop and auditions?

No. After each session, students should be picked up promptly in the car loop on the Lincoln Street side of the school.

What is a Callback and how will my child know if he/she needs to attend the Callbacks?

Callbacks are a second round of auditions where students are asked to sing again and to read scenes with other students. We will announce the Callback list at the end of the first day of auditions on January 15.

How will my child know if he/she has been chosen for Seussical Jr?

We will post the cast list on the doors outside the Music Room on Friday, Jan. 18.

If my child is selected, how much will it cost to participate?

There is no fee to participate in BMV DRAMA. However, once the production is underway, students will be asked to pay for their costumes and other necessary expenses.

How often does BMV DRAMA meet to rehearse for Seussical Jr?

Drama typically meets 2-3 days per week from 4:00 to 5:30 PM. As the show approaches, extra days will be added and rehearsal times extended. Students with larger roles will have more rehearsal time. We provide a calendar of rehearsal dates as soon as we know the schedule.

What is the BMV Theatrical Guild? Do I have to join?

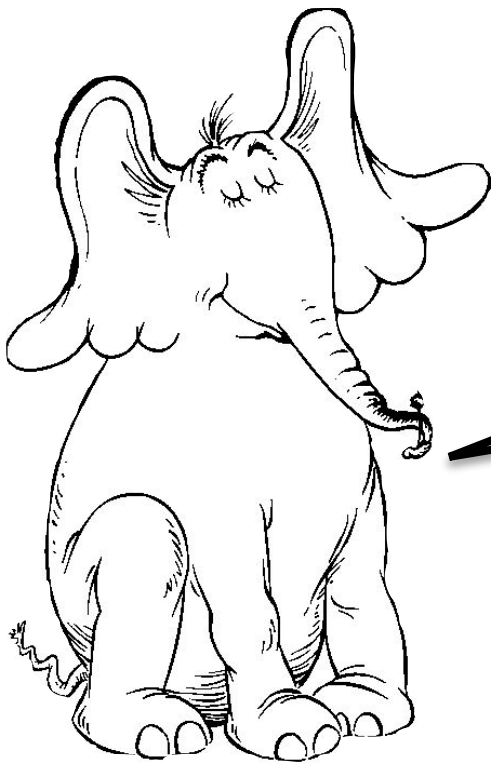

The BMV Theatrical Guild is the fundraising organization for BMV DRAMA. All students chosen to be in BMV DRAMA are encouraged to join the BMV Theatrical Guild ($25 for a Family Membership). The Guild covers all of the general expenses of the spring show, including set construction, printing costs, microphone rentals, licensing fees, etc. Students are also encouraged to participate in Guild fundraisers to raise money for Seussical Jr.

My child is in other clubs and sports. Can he/she still participate in Drama?

Becoming a part of the BMV DRAMA program requires a considerable time commitment. The students must work together to achieve their goal of putting on a great show. Students who miss rehearsals impede the ability of the rest of the cast to practice. Before allowing your child to audition, consider whether this level of commitment is suitable for your child and your family.

Where is the Seussical Jr performed?

The show is performed at South Broward High School. Students will rehearse at the South Broward auditorium on a number of occasions before the show. Transportation to SBHS for rehearsals and shows may be provided, but may also be the responsibility of the parent.

SEUSSICAL JR.

PLEASE FILL OUT THE FORM COMPLETELY. RETURN TO MRS. COHEN NO LATER THAN JANUARY 9, 2019. NO STUDENT WILL BE PERMITTED TO PARTICIPATE UNLESS THIS FORM HAS BEEN COMPLETED AND SUBMITTED ON TIME. ONE FORM PER CHILD, PLEASE.
